

DNCR Volunteer Services Summit

August 30, 2021
9:30 a.m. – 5:00 p.m

Online Via Zoom

Register Here!

All Volunteer and Intern Coordinators across DNCR and other state agencies, cultural, and natural institutions encouraged to attend.

Featuring presentations on recruitment/retention, problem-solving, engaging with young volunteers, virtual opportunities, and more!

Featuring Keynote Speaker Courtney Parker West of Teach for America on
"Deconstructing Bias with an Intersectional Lens"

& closing session with Harriet Edwards of NC State University on the
"Basics of Volunteer Management"

Sessions:

"It's What Keeps Them Coming Back: My Five-Year Journey with Long-Term Volunteers"

Kristin Phillips, Visitor Services and Volunteer Coordinator at the NC Maritime Museum at Southport

"TranscribeNC Volunteer Recruitment and Management"

Olivia Carlisle, Digitization Archivist at the State Archives of North Carolina (SANC) and Adrienne Berney, Outreach Coordinator for SANC

"6 Steps to Plan Amazing Virtual Volunteer Opportunities"

Amber Smith, Executive Director at Activate Good

"No Wrong Answers"

Christine Brin, Associate Curator of Education (Group and Volunteer Coordinator), NC Maritime Museum at Beaufort

"From Virtual Programming to Youth Action: Community Resilience Building Action Projects"

Hannah Barg, YES-Resilience Program Educator at the NC Museum of Natural Sciences, UNC-Institute for the Environment

"Using Birds (Dead or Alive) with Teenagers (Very Alive) to Teach Science, Education, and Teamwork"

John Gerwin, Research Curator, Ornithology at the NC Museum of Natural Science

